(d) with respect to a per-Workstation license, Run the Software on a Server and permit access to the Software from any number of Workstations provided that the total number of Workstations on which the Software is Run does not exceed the Permitted Number.

(e) with respect to a per-User license, Run the Software on an unlimited number of CPUs provided that the total number of Internal Users does not exceed the Permitted Number of Internal Users;

(f) Notwithstanding the foregoing, where the Permitted Number for a license granted to You for a particular copy of the Software is indicated within an applicable purchase order accepted by ByStorm, or in any other documentation employed by or on behalf of either party in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement, then upon acceptance of such purchase order or other documentation by the other party, such purchase order or documentation shall be determinative of the Permitted Number with respect to the Permitted Number of licenses of the Software licensed hereunder. For greater certainty, no terms or conditions from any such purchase order or other document, other than those identifying the Products and the Permitted Number, shall be of any force and effect.

(g) If this is an annual subscription license agreement, You are entitled to use the software only during the one year subscription time period as described in this Section 1(a).

(h) If this is a perpetual license agreement, You are entitled to use the software that is generally available at time of purchase for perpetuity as described in this Section 1(b).
